THE AIR FORCE LAW REVIEW

VOL. 30 1989

CONTENTS

ARTICLES

This Court-Martial is Closed: The Clash Between the Constitution and National Security 1
Captain Mark G. Jackson, USAF

Civil Penalties Under the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act: Must Federal Facilities Pay? 21
Captain John H. Kongable, USAF

Attacks on Foreign Civil Aircraft Trespassing in National Airspace 49
Major Bernard E. Donahue, USAF

Contracting Out: A Road Map 69
Anthony J. Perfilio

King Richard to Solorio: The Historical and Constitutional Bases for Court-Martial Jurisdiction in Criminal Cases 91
Lieutenant Colonel J.D. Droddy, USAF (Ret.)

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Computer Security and the Protection of Sensitive but not Classified Data: The Computer Security Act of 1987 135
Major John T. Soma, USAFR and Elizabeth J. Bedient

United States v. Mance: How Permissive is Permissive Interference of Wrongfulness in Military Urinalysis Cases 147
Captain Zachary Z. Kinney, USAF

Arizona v. Roberson: New Rules of Engagement for Interrogation 155
Captain Peter G. Herman, USAF

Synopsis of Criminal Law Decisions During the 1987 Supreme Court Term 161
Major John B. Southard, Jr., USAFR

BOOK REVIEWS 177